

one thousand dollars; that is to say, that bonds numbered one and two shall mature one year from their date, bonds numbered three and four shall mature two years from their date, and so on, according to their consecutive numbers, one thousand dollars shall mature and become payable, so that the last thousand of said bonds shall fall due twenty-five years from the date thereof. Provided, that if for any reason the commencement of the work of erecting the sewerage system shall be delayed beyond January 1st, 1919, then the said "Commissioners of Hurlock" are authorized and empowered to date all of said bonds at such period of any year, in which the work of construction shall be started, as may be suitable, and to fix the maturity of said bonds from one to twenty-five years from said date in accordance with the scheme in this section set forth, so that one thousand dollars thereof shall mature in each year until the whole shall become payable.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That when said bonds shall be executed, as herein prescribed, the said "Commissioners of Hurlock" shall advertise the same in at least one newspaper published in the town of Hurlock, in at least one newspaper published in the city of Cambridge, and, if they deem it advisable, in one newspaper published in the City of Baltimore, inviting sealed proposals for the purchase of said bonds or any part thereof, with the privilege to the said "Commissioners of Hurlock" to reject any and all bids. The "Commissioners of Hurlock" aforesaid may advertise the said bonds for such length of time as in their discretion is adequate notice to the public, and may offer all of said bonds for sale at the same time, and may offer them at different intervals in such installments and amounts as they may deem advantageous to the town in carrying on the work of constructing or acquiring the property for which the same are issued. The money arising from the sale of said bonds shall be kept as a separate fund by the Town Clerk to be exclusively used for the purposes of this Act, and all taxes levied and collected, as hereinafter provided, for the payment of the interest and principal of said bonds shall be likewise kept as a separate fund by said officer.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the said "Commissioners of Hurlock" are hereby authorized, empowered and required to levy annually upon the assessable property of said town a tax sufficient to pay the interest and principal of said bonds at the time said interest and principal shall mature and become payable; the tax hereby authorized being for the special pur-
